

Worksheet

Options at 16

This worksheet is designed to help you think about your options at 16.

Write down the career you have chosen to focus on

Choose a career that interests you or one that relates to a subject or subjects that interest you.

Which options at 16 are possible route(s) to your chosen career?

Research routes to careers in the job profiles at <https://nationalcareers.service.gov.uk/explore-careers> (England) or <https://careerswales.gov.wales/job-information/> (Wales)

Also, note any subjects you must study at 16 to enable you to successfully follow the available routes.

A Levels/IB?: Yes/No

More detail (including any required subjects for entry):

BTECs/T-Levels?: Yes/No

More detail (including any required subjects for entry):

Apprenticeships?: Yes/No

More detail (including any required subjects for entry):

Name:

Write down your learning style

If you are not sure what your preferred learning style is, answer the quiz What's Your Learning Style? at www.educationplanner.org > Students > Self-Assessments before continuing with this worksheet.

Which of the following options at 16 are suited to your preferred learning style?

A Levels/IB?: Yes/No

More detail:

BTECs/T-levels?: Yes/No

More detail:

Apprenticeships?: Yes/No

More detail:

Given your answers in this worksheet and your own thoughts, which options at 16 will you consider? And, why?

For example - Whilst I would prefer to do A Levels/IB, and this suits my learning style, I like the idea of applying to an apprenticeship as earning whilst studying appeals. This also suits my career choice.

